LOGIC PUZZLE - PAGE 140

Clues

1. One of the girls has the gift of faith. She has a firm confidence in God and his Word, the Bible. When her friends are hurting or happy, she listens to them and then invites them to talk to God with her.
2. One of the girls loves to teach. When her mom teaches the Bible lesson to preschoolers during Sunday School, she helps the little kids learn their Bible verse with hand motions and songs.
3. Both kids whose names begin with E are concerned about the needs of others. One shows mercy—compassion and kindness—to those in need, while the other is concerned with giving—meeting the needs of others.
4. Jamar is a natural-born leader. He invites his friends over to read the Bible with him. When they have questions, they write them down so he can ask a parent or pastor later.
5. One of the boys really enjoys serving others for Jesus. He noticed his older neighbors have trouble keeping their garden looking good, so he helps once a month.
6. Eliana has a heart for—that's a way to say a person has a special love for—people who are hungry and without a home. Elijah has a heart for foster children who leave their homes without any clothes or supplies—like diapers/nappies.
7. Miguel loves to encourage others with Bible verses and small compliments. He also loves writing letters.
8. Hannah loves little kids. Chloe enjoys spending time with her friends.
